

Published based on The Pickens Plan

The Pickens Plan

The Pickens Plan is an energy policy T. Boone Pickens proposed in July 2008 to reduce America's dependence on foreign oil by one-third before the end of 2018. his plan called for using wind power instead of natural gas to generate electricity.

The Pickens Plan

You can also find this article published on The Pickens Plan, and on the tag pages dependence on foreign oil , wind power.